

GoHigherKY.org

Partnering to provide free e-mail access to adult students

GoHigherKY.org is one of Kentucky's sources for postsecondary education information, online applications and much more. This site has built-in e-mail access, which KYAE has been permitted to use. This provides an alternative to free online e-mail services, such as Yahoo.com and Hotmail.com, for adult students. This is important because firewalls at many adult education centers block access to Hotmail and Yahoo; therefore, students who do not have home e-mail access can now access e-mail at adult education centers.

Registering for an e-mail account

While at www.gohigherky.org, click on "Create an Account" at the top center of the page

Enter in the personal information

Be sure to check the box that says that this is your primary e-mail account

Select your username:

- As an Adult Education student, your username should begin with "AE_" (i.e. AE_JDoe5)

Select your password, and then re-enter it for verification

Enter a security question and click "Next"

Enter your answer and click "Next"

Enter your street address

Enter your phone number

Enter your education level

Click on "Next"

You are now registered.

Accessing the e-mail account

Go to www.gohigherky.org or click on the GoHigherKY logo from the KYVAE.org Web page

Click on "Log On"

Enter your User name and Password and click "Log On"

Click on the "My GoHigher" tab

Click on the "e-mail" link

NOTE: the e-mail address acquired will be `<username>@gohigherky.org`